

Plastering Certificate - R277

This course is funded by Liverpool City Region Combined Authority's Adult Skills Fund.

This is a level 1 programme that will prepare you for re-engagement into education. It will develop basic practical skills in preparation for progression onto a level 2 course, recognised within the industry.

COURSE DETAILS

You will participate in practical activities that develop specialist techniques specific to plastering.

This will be underpinned with some basic theory that will outline the application of safe practices within the construction industry whilst developing an understanding of the materials and equipment used in plastering and across other trades.
