

VTCT Diploma in Fashion, Theatre and Media Hair and Make Up Studies - G141

This course explores all aspects of creative, theatrical media makeup from camouflage makeup, complex skill of airbrushing and media makeup to applying ready-made postiches and prosthetic pieces whilst creating fantasy hair designs.

You will develop a wide range of technical abilities and skills in a busy, fast-paced environment while gaining crucial experience of working with theatre productions and professional clients in the industry.

You will develop skills as a professional make-up artist, which will enable you to provide hair and make-up services in the media, theatre, performing arts, fashion and photographic industries.

This course is fast paced, creative and fun! You will need to be highly motivated and flexible to prepare you to work in industry led placements.
